

GUIDELINES TO WRITING A RESEARCH PROPOSAL

Applicants for postgraduate program (Mode A: Full Research) must submit a research proposal which contains the following elements:

- Field of Research
- Topic of Research
- Background of Research
- Problem statement
- Objective
- Methodology
- Schedule of research work
- Equipment to conduct research (if any)
- Budget details and source of financing (if any)
- Expected outcome
- Summary / Conclusion

Applicants must ensure of the following before submitting the proposal:

1. The proposal must be clear and professional.
2. The proposal must be genuine. Similarity index must not exceed 30%.
3. The proposal must describe in details as mentioned above.
4. The research proposal must not exceed 1,500 words or about 2 to 3 pages.